Raising misconduct and lowering the wing by Forty Hadith on Marriage

Compiled by

Shaykh Mulla Ali Al-Qari

All praise belongs to Allah who joined souls with spirits, legalised marriage and forbade fornication, and peace and blessing upon he who separated between the forbidden and the permitted, and upon his family, his companions; the masters of righteousness and success.

To proceed:

Allah (the Exalted) said,

“O you who believe fear Allah as he should be feared and do not die except that you are Muslims.”

(Aal Imran 3:102)

Meaning marry because then you will be complete.

The Exalted said,

“O people fear your Lord who created you from one being and created a partner for it, and spread many women and men from them. Fear Allah over your mutual requests and kinship ties; Allah is observing you.”

(Al-Nisa 4:1)

The Exalted said,

“Allah made you from yourselves partners and made from your partners children and grandchildren. As well as providing provision of goodness.”

(Al-Nahl 16:72)

The Exalted said,

“It is He who created you from water human and made lineages and kinship bonds; your Lord is all able.”

(Al-Furqan 25:54)

The Exalted said,

“Marry your bondswomen to the pious bondsmen and if they are poor Allah will enrich them from his bounty; Allah is all-encompassing and all knowing.”

(Al-Nur 24:32.)

The Exalted said,

“Amongst His signs are the heavens and the earth, the different languages and colours; in that is a sign for possessors of knowledge.”

(Al-Rum 30:22)

The name Cube has been taken in honour of the Ka'bah, which is the name of the cube-like structure in Makkah, also known as "Baitullah", the house of Allah (swt). This is the holiest of places and is the focal point for millions of Muslims each year during the hajj (pilgrimage). The Ka'bah symbolises the Unity of God and the Unity of Mankind.

We place a great amount of emphasis on our great Islamic history and heritage left by our beloved Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and our rightly guided predecessors, who not only excelled in their chosen fields, but who positively changed the shape of the world forever.

"Help you one another in al-birr and at-taqwa (virtue, righteousness and piety) but do not help one another in Sin" (Al-Qur'an 05:02)

The Cube Foundation is not affiliated to any group or organisation but bearing the above verse in mind, Cube works with ALL sincere Muslim and Non-Muslim groups and individuals.
